Press Release | 7 April 2023

Billiards spectacle over 9 days starts on Saturday

Tomorrow, Saturday, the European Billiards Championship will open in Antalya, Turkey, and the first shot will be taken.

This major event combines all popular carom games in one championship and has been held every two years since 2013, with the exception of the Corona pandemic. Over 400 athletes from 18 nations will participate and compete for the coveted European Championship titles. The venue will be the spacious salon of the Maritime Pine Beach Belek Hotel.

Diane Wild, the President of the Continental Confederation CEB, is confident in the organizational and sporting success of this nine-day event, stating: "With the city of Antalya and the local organization team, we have great supporters who make it possible for us to showcase a total of 15 new title holders."

The impressive number of title holders will be determined through various billiard disciplines including One-Cushion, 3-Cushion, Cadre, 5-Pins, and Artistique. Also, new additions to the program are the competitions in Women's 5-Pins, Women's 3-Cushion Teams, and Artistique Teams, which have never been held before.

From a purely organizational perspective, the European Championships are once again a logistical masterpiece. A total of 28 billiard tables from ZEKI will be professionally set up and dismantled after the tournament. Additionally, 71 referees from nine nations will oversee the countless games in the various disciplines.

The playing materials will be provided by Simonis and Aramith. This European Championship will also mark the beginning of a new partnership between TAOM and CEB as the 'Official Chalk Partner'.

The complete event can be followed starting from April 8th in the paid livestream on tv.kozoom.com.
