3-CUSHION: NATIONAL TEAMS & LADIES ANTALYA 2020

PRESS RELEASE
February 5, 2020

3-Cushion European Championships for Ladies and Teams in Antalya/Turkey!

In the week leading up to the UMB World Cup in Antalya, the CEB takes center stage in the same location. From February 11th – 13th, the European 3-cushion championship for ladies will take place in Antalya/Turkey, and from February 13th – 16th, it's the European 3-cushion championship for national teams. Both events will take place in the Limak Atlantis Resort & Hotel in Antalya.

For the ladies tournament, Therese Klompenhouwer from the Netherlands is the number one seeded player, followed by Gülsen Degener from Turkey, Irena Hambalkova from Czech Republic and Steffi Daske from Germany. The Netherlands has five players in the draw, Turkey has four. A total of 24 ladies will compete for the title, the ranking points and a first prize of € 1.000,00. Matches will be to 25 points in the group stage, with a 40-inning limit. In the single elimination stage, the length will be 30 points. In all matches there are two time-outs possible.

The second event is the European team championship in 3-cushion. Belgian favourite team (Merckx and Forthomme), as number one in CEB nations ranking, is placed first in Group A. Other favourites are Turkey 1 (Sayginer and Coklu) and Spain 1 (Sanchez and Legazpi).

Turkey 2 (Tasdemir and Capak) is a strong contender, as well as Denmark 1 (Nelin and Sörensen). The Swedish A-team (Blomdahl and Nilsson), with their long history of successes in Viersen, must be considered a dangerous outsider, and it will be interesting to see what the very seasoned and still-very-young combination from Italy can achieve (Zanetti and D'Agata).

23 teams take part in this event. The length is 30 points in the group stage, 40 points in the single elimination stage, with a maximum of three time-outs. First prize is € 4.000,00.
